- Items that may be sold during our June & October Harvest Fairs (Tractor Shows) include Museum related articles such as equipment, parts, tools, antique & collectibles and handcrafted items. The Museum will not allow garage sale items. Typical items sold must be included with this agreement. No raffles are allowed.
Vendors should display a valid copy of their seller's permit or business license in their booth(s) at all times.
Booth spaces are 12' x 12'. All vendors must stay within size restrictions and may not infringe on walkways, fire lanes or neighboring booths. Booth spaces are assigned on a first come first serve basis as paperwork is processed.
Space Fees: $30.00 per day
Space fees refunds may be made up until two weeks before show, minus a $10.00 office fee.
All transactions are between buyer and seller. The Museum has no interest in such transactions and is in no way responsible.
Vendors must provide their own chairs and awnings if needed.
All booths must be set up by 8:30am, each day of the show. Vendors may setup awnings, table and chairs beginning the Thursday before show (after 2pm).
There is no parking on show grounds; all vehicles must be parked in the main parking lot by 8:15 am. If handicap parking is needed please contact the museum office and a parking pass will be issued. THERE IS NO PARKING ON THE GRASS AT ANYTIME.
You may not transfer your space to any other persons not named on this agreement without prior approval from the Museum office.
No animals or alcoholic beverages are allowed on show grounds.
Please include, with this form, a listing of products sold and prices. Also include pictures or sales brochures if available.
The Museum reserves the right to deny any application due to duplication, appropriateness, etc.
All articles offered for sale or sold must be removed from the grounds at the close of the show. Articles left on the grounds after the show shall become property of the Museum and may be disposed of with proceeds going to the Antique Gas & Steam Engine Museum, Inc.

I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions set forth by the Antique Gas & Steam Engine Museum, Inc.
